Anna Yankelev, MPH, MBA (she/her) joined the Health & Medicine Policy

Research Group in January 2023 where she is responsible for overseeing efforts related to building a sustainable, equitable public health workforce. Her work sits at the intersection of community organizing, strategic planning, health equity, and workforce development. She began her career as a youth activist and community organizer while earning her B.S. in Public Health from Brandeis University and her M.P.H. and M.B.A. from the pandemic, Anna also served as the Chief Community Mitigation Officer for Lake County's Public Health Emergency Operations

Center (PHEOC) At Health & Medicine, Anna leads workforce initiatives that support the development and sustainability of various public health roles.
